

You're receiving this newsletter because you have been subscribed.

Not interested anymore? Unsubscribe.

Squash Player Newsletter February 2017 Issue

SQUASH PLAYER MAGAZINE

In the February issue...

HOW CAN EGYPT BE BEATEN

With England's 'golden generation' nearing retirement, Mike Dale asks the experts what the next wave of English talent must do to end Egypt's domination of the world game.

Click here to read his report

'AN OUTSTANDING PLAYER'

Rod Gilmour looks back at the life of Scottish squash legend Mike Oddy, the former world no.2, who died in November aged 79.

Click here to read his article

PHOTO OF THE YEAR

Squash Player readers voted throughout December for their Photo of the Year from a choice of 10 drawn up by globe-trotting photographer Steve Line.

Click here to see the winner

SQUASH PLAYER GOES DIGITAL

Squash Player now has a digital edition. View it here. Just enter your email address, create your own password and you're away -

squashplayermag

Latest squash news, features, tactics, comment and photos from the sport's leading magazine

News, views and images from the sport on Squash Player magazine's Facebook pages

Squash Player magazine's Tumblr pages bring the latest snippets in our sport, as well as retro and classic montages of past issues

COMPETITIONS

Win one of 10 double sets of the new SuperNick ZX Ashaway string by answering three squash questions.

Click here to enter

PIONEER OF WEARABLE SPORTS TECHNOLOGY

Win a Polar M400 GPS running watch by answering three questions on the Rules of Squash.

Click here to enter

WORKSHOP

COACHES' CORNER

Mike Dale talks to John Robertson about his 50-year career as a squash coach.

Click here to read his interview

MASTERSHOT - JAMES

WILLSTROP Ian McKenzie examines the Englishman's exquisite backhand volley.

Click here to read his analysis for a trial period. Send this link to your friends and to members.

Click here for full magazine details     Click here for subscriptions

NEWS

CUSKELLY ENDS FARAG DEFENCE

Australian Ryan Cuskelly claimed the biggest title of his career when he beat defending champion Ali Farag in the final of the M70 Motor City Open in Detroit, USA.

Click here for report

TOC WINNERS MAKE HISTORY

Egypt's Karim Abdel Gawad and France's Camille Serme made history when they won the Tournament of Champions in New York for the first time.

Click here for report

NEW ERA OF COLLABORATION

The Professional Squash Association and World Squash Federation have agreed in principle to adopt a new Memorandum of Understanding.

Click here for report

TOURNAMENTS

GUGGENHEIM

The Windy City Open is the next PSA World Series tournament and it is set to provide some thrilling squash from the start, with some mouthwatering match-ups in the first round of both events in Chicago.

Click here for more information

UNSUBSCRIBE

Don't want to receive these emails any more? Please unsubscribe