RLTSC NEWS

The Xmas Party at RLTSC is booked for the Saturday 15th December 7.30pm to late. We will have a late bar licence and our theme will be Disco + Barbie. Please look out for the posters to be sent out shortly! It promises to be another great party so book early to guarantee your ticket and there will be early bird (probably Turkeys!) discounts!

We do have a No Parking Restriction for all, immediately outside the Club. Unfortunately, the markings are fading badly but we would ask that this restriction be respected by all members as there is more than enough parking available. The restriction reason is that it protects the juniors when they exit the Clubhouse as visibility is improved when no cars are parked there particularly at night when it is hard to see. Please can you respect this as it is for all our safety. The exception will be for the contractors when making deliveries. In addition, we have disabled spaces at the nearest end of the car park.

A few reminders

In November, the club will be replacing the existing entry card system with a 'contactless' card and your swipe card will no longer work. This is imminent, please look out for communications on when this will happen!

We have had lots of interest in members contacting the office about a team for the very popular daily quiz programme 'Eggheads', which is broadcast every weekday evening on BBC2. We still need some more applicants to give us a more all-round knowledge so please let the office know of your interest. Clive needs a Team of 5 to represent the RLTSC.

Please do volunteer to help the Club. For example, the Xmas party will need help to prepare the Clubhouse and I know Suzie and her Team will be very grateful.

So, if you have the time please could you offer it and email the office.

Squash News

Social Squash continues as normal with the Monday 19th /28th and Friday the 23th / 30th November as the next dates in the Calendar.

Tennis News

The Turbo tennis champions held on the 3rd November have produced new winners with Noy in the Ladies, whereas Alex and Sean were the joint winners for the Men's. Sean appears to be on a Turbo roll and clearly needs to be challenged! Look out for our Turbo date 1st December, https://rltsc.mycourts.co.uk/tournament_details.asp?tid=2058
